Dear CRB,

Obviously, I had some major grammar, punctuation, missing footnotes and other formatting errors, but I've corrected those without adding or subtracting anything, just making it make sense. My choice was to either miss the deadline or fix every comma or period, so I apologize it was such a mess. Here is the Corrected version and I plan on fling an Amended version in the coming week. Please use this version and thanks for your patience. I am sending this to the CRB by regular mail with one original, 5 copies and a pdf along with Volume 2, Exhibits. I am also email this Corrected version to all the participants. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

George
